

Asian Archaeology Seminar Series HT 2019

Institute of Archaeology, 36 Beaumont Street, Oxford

Monday, 14 January, 4:30-5:30 PM

Dr Dirk Meyer (Oxford)

Antiquity Resurfaced: A Critical Reflection on the use of Unprovenienced Manuscripts for the Study of Early China

THURSDAY, 17 January, 5:00-6:30 PM

Prof. Kazuo Miyamoto (Kyushu University)

The spread of rice agriculture in North-eastern Asia: From Shandong to Japan via the Korean Peninsula

Monday, 21 January, 4:30-5:30 PM

Prof. Nigel Wood & Dr Chris Doherty (Oxford)

Middle Eastern Potters' Responses to Chinese Trade Wares, 9th to 14th c. AD

Monday, 4 February, 4:30-5:30 PM

In-Hwa Choi (University of Oxford)

Cultural Heritage Management and Content Utilization with Digital Archaeology

Monday, 18 February, 4:30-5:30 PM

Prof. Shih Ching-fei (National Taiwan University; Needham Research Institute)

Cantonese Ivory Spheres: Raw Materials, Techniques and Knowledge in a Global Context

Monday, 25 February, 4:30-5:30 PM

Wang Tingting (Sun Yat-sen University; Needham Research Institute)

Crossing Paths: Millet, Wheat and Cultural Interactions along the Inner Asian Mountain Corridor, China

Monday, 4 March, 4:30-5:30 PM

Dr Shelagh Vainker (Ashmolean Museum)

Song Ceramics (preliminary title)