

Barbarians Prehistory from the Mesolithic to the Iron Age

Michaelmas term 2019

Fridays, 4–5pm, Lecture room, Institute of Archaeology

Week 1: 18 October

Dating dilemmas? How Iron Age brooches can help

Dr Sophia Adams, University of Glasgow

Week 2: 25 October

What can coins tell us about Iron Age Britain?

Dr John Talbot, Celtic Coin Index

Week 3: 1 November

Local Patterning: Thinking rivers, communities, prehistoric fieldsystems and monuments on the Fenland Ouse

Prof Chris Evans, Cambridge Archaeological Unit, University of Cambridge

** Week 4: 8 November **

NO LECTURE – we'll be up in Edinburgh at the UISPP Metal Ages conference. Join us!

Week 5: 15 November

Early Neolithic Agriculture in Europe: Isotopic case studies

Dr Kurt Gron, Durham University

Week 6: 22 November

Adventures in the 'wet and wild' Neolithic of West Asia and Europe

Prof Amy Bogaard, University of Oxford

Week 7: 29 November

School of Archaeology Prehistory DPhil Showcase!

University of Oxford, featuring: Tansy Branscombe, Juan Latorre Ruiz, Tom Maltas, Emanuele Prezioso & Karl Smith

Week 8: 6 December

Cereal storage as European prehistory

Prof Andy Bevan, UCL

For more information, please contact: Courtney Nimura at courtney.nimura@arch.ox.ac.uk

Image: © University of Cambridge Museum of Archaeology & Anthropology