

Classical Archaeology Seminar, MT 2019

Mondays, 4 pm

(except weeks 3 and 8 when the seminar will start at 5 pm)

The Ioannou Centre for Classical and Byzantine Studies, Lecture Theatre

The living and the dead: Funerary culture and tomb monuments in the Late Classical and Hellenistic Mediterranean

Week 1: 14 October: Alan Greaves (Univ. of Liverpool), Lycian tombs in their ancient and modern contexts

Week 2: 21 October: Abuzer Kızıl (Mugla University), The Hekatomneion at Uzunyuva in Mylasa: the monumental tomb of Hekatomnos, first satrap of Caria

Week 3: 28 October, 5 pm: Ute Kelp (Frankfurt University), Transformations in the funerary landscape and burial practices in Pergamon in a regional perspective: the Late Classical and Hellenistic period

Week 4: 4 November: Veronique Dasen (Univ. of Friburg), Games and toys in a funerary context

Week 5: 11 November: Anthi Aggeli (Ephorate of Antiquities of Preveza), The nekropoleis of Ambracia in northwestern Greece: spatial organization and burial customs

Week 6: 18 November: Stella Skaltsa (Copenhagen), Monuments and associations: contextualising the necropolis of Rhodes

Week 7: 25 November: Marie-Dominique Nenna (Lyon, CNRS & Centre d'Études Alexandrines), Funerary landscapes and practices of the Alexandrians

Week 8: 2 December, 5 pm: Efstathios Raptou (Department of Antiquities of Cyprus), From Marion to Arsinoe: the transition from Classical to Hellenistic times and the role of Macedonians in northwestern Cyprus as evidenced by recent finds in the nekropoleis of ancient Marion

ALL WELCOME

Organisers: Professor Bert Smith & Maria Stamatopoulou, Classics Faculty

For more information please contact: maria.stamatopoulou@lincoln.ox.ac.uk