

GREEK ARCHAEOLOGY GROUP & PREHISTORIC AND EARLY GREECE GRADUATE SEMINAR

TW: @GREEKARCHOXON
MICHAELMAS TERM 2022

Week 1 (Thursday, 13th October)

No Seminar this week.

Week 2 (Thursday, 20th October)

No Seminar this week.

Week 3 (Thursday, 27th October)

Paul Halstead (The University of Sheffield): Sheep and olives in the 'ancient economy' of 1st millennium BCE Greece: insights from traditional farming.

Week 4 (Thursday, 3rd November)

Ken Wardle (University of Birmingham): Thermon - the Prehistory of the Cult of Apollo.

Week 5 (Thursday, 10th November)

Amy Smith (University of Reading): Oinochoai in Attic Festivals.

Week 6 (Thursday, 17th November)

Borja Legarra Herrero (University College London): Minoan Gold items and their technical and social lives.

Week 7 (Thursday, 24th November)

Tomas Alusik (Charles University): The Porti-Miamou Project 2015-16: Preliminary results of a small-scale surface survey in south central Crete.

Week 8 (Thursday, 1st December)

Marie Nicole Pareja (University of Pennsylvania): Bronze Age monkeys and the case for cross-disciplinary collaboration.

All lectures are held at 1pm (UK time) in the Lecture Room, Institute of Archaeology, 36 Beaumont St.

Everyone welcome. Meetings are followed by tea, coffee and cake.

Senior Member: Dr Thomas Mannack
Convenor: Angela Falezza (angela.falezza@arch.ox.ac.uk)