

Late Antique and Byzantine Studies Seminar – Special Series

Procopius and the Language of Buildings

Wednesdays at 5.30 pm (UK time)

Register in advance for this on-line series:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZEKdeuspz8jG9lfBfrd75k6grxLyWtG_PAu

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

- (W1) 19 January M. Whiting, E. Turquois, M. Ritter (Mainz and Halle) Introduction to the DFG project “Procopius and the Language of Buildings”
- Marlena Whiting (Mainz and Halle): Networks and the City: Building a network-based model of De Aed. I.
- (W2) 26 January Elodie Turquois (Mainz): Reworking the Buildings: The shorter recension as a later epitome
- (W3) 2 February Efthymios Rizos (Serres): Long Walls and Linear Barriers in the South Balkan Provinces
- (W4) 9 February Jim Crow (Edinburgh): Procopius, De Aedificiis and Eastern Thrace: Is absence the highest form of presence?
- (W5) 16 February Alkiviadis Ginalis (Istanbul): Procopius and the reflection of water landscapes in the 6th century
- (W6) 23 February Olivier Gengler (Tübingen): Building Stories: Constantinople in Malalas and Procopius
- (W7) 2 March Kerim Altuğ (Istanbul): Re-building Byzantium: Archaeological evidence on the construction activities under Justinian in Constantinople and its neighbourhoods
- (W8) 9 March Miranda Williams (Oxford): “He restored all the dismantled fortresses in Libya” (Aed. vi.5.7): Reassessing the Justinianic fortification programme in North Africa

Convened by:

Marlena Whiting, Elodie Turquois, Max Ritter (University of Mainz)
Ine Jacobs, Ida Toth, Marc Lauxtermann (University of Oxford)

