

Marie Skłodowska-Curie 2019 Individual Fellowships School of Archaeology guidance

The School of Archaeology welcomes interest from potential applicants for Marie Skłodowska-Curie 2019 Individual Fellowships (European Fellowships). The funder's deadline for applications is Wednesday 11 September 2019, 4pm UK time.

The first step is to seek a supervisor who is an academic member of the School of Archaeology and would be happy to support your application. If you have any queries about contacting a potential supervisor, please write to research@arch.ox.ac.uk in the first instance.

Expression of Interest

Applicants should then submit an Expression of Interest to the School by email (to research@arch.ox.ac.uk) no later than Wednesday 31 July 2019. This should consist of a single pdf document (saved in the format: MSCA-2019_(surname firstname).pdf), containing the following information:

- a) CV
- b) Summary of the intended project (1–2 A4 pages maximum)
- c) Details of any facilities that would be required from the host institution (e.g. for scientific analyses) during the Fellowship
- d) A brief statement of support from the academic within the School who will support your application and act as supervisor if your application is successful, indicating the relevance of the research to the broader interests of the School and their support of the proposal and applicant

All applications will be assessed on academic merit, the feasibility of the proposed research project and the extent to which the work fits with existing interests of the research cluster and the School. The School will consider its research priorities and resource implications when reaching a decision.

Please note that those who do not submit an Expression of Interest by the above deadline cannot be considered for this round.

Application schedule

Please note that in cases where the School agrees to support an application, a first draft of the application will need to be submitted to the School by Wednesday 14 August 2019; the completed application will then need to be submitted to the University's Research Services by Wednesday 28 August 2019.

If you have any queries about the application process, please contact us at research@arch.ox.ac.uk.
