

Sudan: Ancient and Modern Programme 2018 – 2019

Michaelmas 2017

- 4pm 8th November (Week 5) – Rennan Lemos (PhD. Candidate, University of Cambridge)
'Rethinking the New Kingdom in Nubia through mortuary assemblages: foreign objects in local contexts'
Lecture Room, Institute of Archaeology, Beaumont Street
- 4pm 22nd November (Week 7) – Tomomi Fushiya (PhD. Candidate University of Leiden)
'The temple that vanished overnight? Stories of local people and archaeologists in Sudanese Nubia'
Lecture Room, Institute of Archaeology, Beaumont Street

Trinity 2018

4th May – full day

3rd Sudan Studies Postgraduate Conference

Featuring a range of scholars working on ancient and modern Sudan. Free attendance, registration recommended:

<https://www.facebook.com/DUSESG/>

Details of events may change; updates will be emailed and information is available at

<https://www.facebook.com/sudanancientandmodern>

<https://sudanancientandmodern.wordpress.com>